2008 PINOT NOIR A light, dried cherry nose with hints of cocoa and curry powder balanced by plums and raspberries. Soft chocolate tannins embrace the palate followed by a spicy black peppercorn and cinnamon herb finish.	$48 / $38.40	_____
2006 F-H-B MERLOT "F-H-B" - Family Hold Back is designated for special wines made in small quantities. Aromas of warm sun-drenched raspberries, dark chocolate, worn-in leather, and a touch of fresh mint. Complex, integrated flavors of blackberry, boysenberry, with a touch of nutmeg.	$75 / $60	_____
2002 LIBRARY CABERNET SAUVIGNON Rich and luscious, aromas of black cherry, and a hint of rosemary. A velvety texture on the mouth with cherries, black currant, and dried cherry cassis and a complexity that you only get from bottle age.	$80 / $64	_____
2005 CABERNET SAUVIGNON 1.5L (MAGNUM) Deep ruby in color, offering a luxurious nose of blackberry, black cherry, sweet tobacco and chocolate with hints of black pepper. The tannins are ripe and velvety comingling on a richly textured palate leading to a lush and opulent finish.	$120 / $96	_____
2006 RESERVE CABERNET SAUVIGNON Deep, dark, and delicious. Black cherry, black plum, and fig, along with a tongue-tingling acidity, balance the inherent savory nature of our hillside fruit. Grippy, lip-smacking tannins lead into a peppery finish. And everywhere, there is chocolate. Mmm.	$100 / $80	_____
