

FEATURED ARTICLE

As Napa Valley Reopens, Wine Tasting Has A New Set Of Rules

Katie Hammel, Lonely Planet Writer

Thursday, July 9, 2020

The candle-lit Twilight at Trefethen experience includes a private tasting and a tour of the historic property © Courtesy of Trefethen Family Vineyards

Trefethen Family Vineyards

At Trefethen Family Vineyards, Guests can choose from a variety of tastings that range from $30 to $90 per person, but the ultimate in privacy is the Twilight at Trefethen experience ($150 per person) which includes an after-hours tour of the 1886 property followed by an exclusive seated tasting served of their reserve and small lot wines – which run the gamut from sauvignon blanc to malbec – with small bites like caramelized spring onion and wild mushroom tartlet. There's only one table available per evening.